This week's topics:

1. What do you think of tattoos? Do you have any?
2. What's your favorite way to waste time?
3. What "got your goat" during HS years?
4. What were you really into when you were a kid?
5. Your memories of the stores on Grand and 8th streets. Work in any?
6. Have you ever spoken in front of a large group of people? How did it go?
7. Who was your best friend in elementary school?
8. How much time do you spend on the internet? What do you usually do?
9. Was there ever an event in your life that defied explanation?
10. Has anyone ever saved your life? Have you ever saved anyone?

11. Whatever else.

5. Diebel's Grocery store between Howe and Grand Ave. We would charge candy to parents account until they figured it out.

7. Best friend was Tom Mader - he went to SSP& P.

6. Spoke before City Planning Commission and City Council, went fine except time I tumbled down steps after pointing out items on a map.

I have a tattoo on my left shoulder, when I bought my first bike I promised myself I would do it. When my grandson was about 3 I showed it to him he said '' grandma I will help you wash it off'' I said it's on for good and it will never wash off. His answer to that was '' I have batman on my tummy and I will wash it off tonight and put a dinosaur on tomorrow.'' Oh those grandbabies are just the best..

Number one. Tattoos often tell a story, sometimes happy, sometimes sad. Everyone in our family was born on the 28th or the 3rd of the month. We had three sons. Our first son died at age 2 1/2 in 1981, and our second son died from a drug overdose last year at age 34.

That is an opium poppy which is used for a single purpose. Heroin. Drug use leads to heartache. In Greek mythology Icarus was warned by his father not to fly too close to the sun. He did anyway and perished.

Our third son works for Behavioral Health Services in Portland Or., and his team is on 24 hour call with the Portland Police Department in order to assist in assessing dangerous domestic situations, and determine who in the family is at risk, and should not be left in the home, or who needs to be put under 24 hour watch. He's doing what he loves and was trained to do.

They say when you lose a child, you think about it daily. I would move that up to about 20 times a day.

Hi Kent, hope all is well with Judy and you, thanks for this gift from you to us.

1. Tattoos.....still struggling to accept them, am I showing my age?

2. Favorite way to waste time is riding my Harley

3. What got my goat was the bullying in High School by upper classmen.

4. I was really in to all sports, baseball, basketball, football, golf, had little time for anything else.

5. Downtown store I liked the best was Johnson Hills, 8th Street store was Robbi's Hamburger Stand.

6. Was invited to Vevy, Switzerland to Nestle's World Headquarters to present our non stop coffee brewing system to all of their European and Asian Beverage Managers. It went very good and we began selling our coffee brewing systems to most all their markets as a result.

7. Best friend thru the 7th grade was Dave Krumrie, then switched schools to Mead in the 8th grade, best friend was Roger Fritz.

8. Time spent on the internet daily, 1 to 1 1/2 hours, usually learning about something on You Tube or shopping for something on ebay or amazon

9. What defied explanation to me was the low value the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong placed on the South Vietnamese men, women & children's lives..

Montagnard long houses

10, No one has saved my life but I had the opportunity to save many Montagnard and South Vietnamese lives.

11.Our Trek days are over, for our 47th Anniversary I bought two fat tire E bikes for Kathy and I. Now we can ride with peddle assist. It is cheating but we love it.

I detest tattoos!!!!!

My favorite way to waste time is playing Solitaire on my phone. I was really into riding my horse when I was a kid. I became more cautious as I aged, however. My bestie in grade school was Susie Krueger.

I guess I am in the minority about tattoos. I realize it is a form of expression, but really people..do you have to have them on your face. I think it is sad to take a beautiful part of your body and turn it into a drawing pad. Also having to buy clothes so they hang out for all to see. I am trying to be accepting of them but I haven't seen any real attractive ones. I'm sure most of you do have one and I'm okay with that but not on the face please.

Tattoos-for people who want attention

Favorite waste time- TV

HS years- didn't like students who were jerks

Into as a kid - the outdoors

Store memories- Johnson Hills and Woolworths

Speaking to people- Vietnam - telling 400 GI's and Arvin's to quit firing to save civilian casualties, they stopped

Grade school friend- Jimmy Winegarden (Vietnam vet deceased)

Internet- one half hour daily to turn off and on heat, ac, lights and banking and info

Life event- when my family moved out of Wi. Rapids - Why?

My life saved and me saving someone's life - Vietnam on patrol in jungle, search old French house, about to open a closet door which was booby trapped, buddy stopped me, saved many civilians from dying at the hands of our guys.- - -

I would like a referendum on President Trump good or bad with explanation:-my thoughts- very good, he came along at the right time with what's happening in this country and the world and he's bringing out the true colors of all opposition- Go Trump!

1. What do you think of tattoos? Too expensive, … too messy. Do you have any? Nope

2. What's your favorite way to waste time? I do not waste it,

3. What "got your goat" during HS years? Back then, I do not recall having a goat

4. What were you really into when you were a kid? Music, scouts, Science, friends, etc.

5. Your memories of the stores on Grand and 8th streets. Work in any? I worked at Johnson Hills and spent 50% of my pay on Music LPs and clothing each payday and saving for new sporting goods (fishing and hunting gear).

6. Have you ever spoken in front of a large group of people? How did it go? I have taught at two colleges and Universities. I have also been a speaker at various state and national organizations. It always went well thanks to Barbara Santapolis' Freshman Speech Course and for a long term involvement in Toastmasters.

11. Just listened to an excellent book: "Fear: Trump in the White House" by Bob Woodward, award-winning author who wrote All The President's Men. Brings to light much of the behind-the-scenes intrigue among Trump and his staff.
