Kent, Could you please send this out ASAP? I am cancelling the previous link tomorrow. Thanks.

LHS Classmates,

Enclosed is an updated class reunion Google Photos link of our 50th reunion.

<https://goo.gl/photos/hNUvYnWri4Fs3Sfx9>

I made a little goof by deleting some reunion pics from another album and thus deleted about 11 photos from the previous 50th album. It seems one can not delete photos from a "story" album and then re-enter or add additional photos?! You can with a "standard" album, but NOT with a "story" album. Oh well, first quirk. So I created another reunion album, easy as cake, but then of course had to annotate all the pictures again!

But worth it! I added some pics taken by Steve Harding and corrected some errors in my previous link of photos. If you find any other annotation errors, let me know. I can correct them at this end and they are transferred to all our links. Cool huh?! One can not add additional pictures!

Hint: You may be able to download a picture from my link, to your device as a "hard" copy, not sure, still learning. But I do know if you download the "google photos" app and then save this album to your google photos cloud, you will save this story folder and also you can download your favorite pictures to your device as "hard" copies.

I don't want to name a person who does something annoying but I do have some current rants about behaviors of folks in general:

- 1) People who push their carts "at" the cart corral in the supermarket parking lot leaving them all askew and in the way.
How hard is it, especially if you get it that far, to secure it to the one in front?
- 2) Caretakers of infants who tote babies out in the sun and the wind with no hats for protecting their little bald heads.
- 3) Those drivers who round the curve in our neighborhood who use the straightaway before the next curve to go from 35 to 55 mph.
- 4) Recycling items in the landfill bins when the recycling facility is steps away.
- 5) People like me who rant about pretty insignificant things when there seriously more important things to think about.

Although I have been gone from Rapids over 50 years; here are some still existing 50 years later-Pasquales, Portesis, Daly Drugs, Rapids Sheet Metal, IGA, Wood County Bank, Ebbes Lake Aire, Ritchay, Funeral Home, Higgins Funeral Home, Rapids theater, Kellys Liquors, Johnny's Rapids Inn, Hotel Mead, Schmidts Jewelry, Grandmas Restaurant, Safeway Bus Transit, Bulls Eye-Tri City golf, Dairy Queen, Hamers Bakery, Bulls Eye Credit Union, Paper City Savings, Brazeau Law, Schmidt Law, Metcalf Lumber, Bowlmor, Rapids Tribune, & WFHR.

Many bars in Rapids have been in existence over 50 years but I don't know their current names. Riverview Hospital, Consolidated Papers, Wood Co. Telephone, and First National Bank existed over 50 years but are under new name or ownership.

I have visited food trucks in Santa Monica Ca. and Phoenix. No longer roach coaches; todays sophisticated food trucks are equal to good restaurants.

Thank you for your efforts, Kent.

Wild hogs have just exploded here as they have all over. I even had the pleasure?!?! of one jumping out of the weeds and taking off my front bumper. It definitely opened my eyes at 6 in the morning! Our neighbor shot 12 at one time and had some Hmong friends come to clean them for food in their neighborhood. At least they are very useful for food but not so much for our yards.

Good Health LHS Classmates, graduating class of 1965,

I have attached a link to pictures (73 of them) of our 50th Class Reunion

Hopefully I have labeled them accurately, at least as accurate as the old memory can recall!

Just click on the link below.

These photos were organized by the new app "Google Photos" (both Apple and Android versions). It is one of the coolest apps I have ever used. It aggregates all your photos from all devices (PC, Tablet, Cell phone, etc.) up to the cloud and then they are accessible from any of your devices. Google labels them with maps, places you have been, dates, etc. You can search your library of photos by face recognition and places you have been. It's really cool ! I recommend you try it if you have not already. Hint: In settings, choose 1) unlimited photos, 2) upload when on wire fi, 3) upload when charging.

You may need to download the "google photos" app if the link below does not work. I hope you enjoy.

Your Classmate,
Cary Winegarden

PS. If you have problems with this link, just email me at "caryw254@gmail.com" and I will send you a direct link

Peter Parsons - petepars@live.com

Hi Kent, I look forward to your classmate news letter. Pretty amazing how you can come up with so many topics.

I am in search of Mike Brusoe who lives in The Eureka Springs area in NW Arkansas

Larry Johnson and myself are doing a road trip to that area the beginning of October and would like to find Mike. Larry and I were stationed at Fort Leonard for a year in 1966. On weekend passes we would hitch hike on Route 66 to various locations. Once on a three day pass we hitched back to Rapids, 700 and some miles, did it in a day, a very long day. We are planning to do some of the old 66 and also visit Ft Leonard Missouri. We trained as combat engineers there in 1966.

August of 67 we were both shipped to Viet Nam, me to an engineering unit Larry to a special forces (green Beret) unit where we spent one year, seven months, 24 days. Mike, Larry and myself were good friends in HS and years beyond, we would really like to hook up with him. If anybody out there has any info on him it would be so much appreciated.

Thank you, Peter Parsons
