

From: schultzmti@aol.com
To: chuck
Subject: Re: Lincoln High Newsletter - a competitive fish-fry!
Date: Friday, August 18, 2006 6:22:51 PM

I did not receive Dave Engles missive, did you forward my e-mail where I mentioned my horror at her being married to norbert areknot? Dave was sort of a strange chap I can see him as and undertaker (a little pun) of history.

-----Original Message-----

From: chuck@crgfinancialconsulting.com
To: schultzmti@aol.com
Sent: Fri, 18 Aug 2006 1:07 PM
Subject: RE: Lincoln High Newsletter - a competitive fish-fry!

the vizbys have moved from the stream of consciousness technique to assuming that their readership has plumbed the depth of their thought and through some eastern mysticism have become one with them. Think of it, we don't have to travel to their haunted houses any more to experience the fish fries on their latest culinary find.
timothy leaky reincarnate can ms Voss be long for this world?

Regarding Rapids barristers and champeters

Did you get the latest edition of Dave Engel's Artifacts?

Two page centerfold of all of the in the old court house in 56
cch

Compensation Resource Group

7507 Hubbard Avenue, Suite 203

Middleton, WI 53562

Phone: (608) 833-4210

Toll Free: (800) 373-4210

Fax: (608) 824-0079

www.crgfinancialconsulting.com

-----Original Message-----

From: schultzmti@aol.com [mailto:schultzmti@aol.com]
Sent: Thursday, August 17, 2006 7:34 PM
To: chuck
Subject: Fwd: Lincoln High Newsletter - a competitive fish-fry!

and after they finished the fish the guys got, "boiled" themselves. Poor ms. Voss (rhymes with loss) after a selfless career, ends up with a semi eulogy in wisby's weekly reeker. Did I miss part of the bugle, was there n critique of the food or comment by benjy, in her usual stream of consciousness style, about the attendees? Am waiting for your post dealing with Lincoln's Rapids (shoals) lawyers.

-----Original Message-----

From: kvasby@smallbytes.net
To: hntimm@tznet.com
Sent: Thu, 17 Aug 2006 7:16 PM
Subject: Lincoln High Newsletter - 8/17/06

Lincoln High Newsletter

Memories of then! News of now!

Kent,

Thank you for your ongoing dedication to this newsletter. I am generally one who likes to sit quietly in a corner and listen to what others say...until I have something to say.

In the last two weeks, I have been to Madison to see my son and a wonderful woman from Kohler married at Calvary Lutheran Chapel. The reception that followed was truly elegant at the Hilton there.

I could tell you more about the wedding, but I have a different reason for writing. I was also in Appleton helping my mother from assisted living to a smaller home with more care. While at the independent/assisted living residence, I chatted with a lovely lady dressed in pink and sporting a Green Bay Packer logo. When she found out that I was from Wisconsin Rapids, she shared that she had taught second grade at Mead School. Her name is Bonnie Voss (that rhymes with boss). She picked second grade because she was still bigger than them. If you want write to her, her email address is bvoss@new.rr.com

Kathy (Hahn) McKinney katmckinne@aol.com in Big Sky country - Montana

Methodist Fish Boil in the Rapids!

The Methodist church sponsored a fish boil two weeks ago as a fund-raiser. They served over 650 folks.

[Image Removed]

[Image Removed]

Check out AOL.com today. Breaking news, video search, pictures, email and IM. All on demand. Always Free.