Happy New Year!

Kent,

If news is in short supply over the weekend you may want to include this brief mention of Chuck Hinner's thoughtfulness and generosity. In less than a week he hosted two birthday celebrations. On December 18th he hosted a small gathering to celebrate Bill Heilman's birthday, then, five days later he and his lovely wife Susan flew to Atlanta to host another party, this one at the Ritz Carlton to celebrate my birthday. A big surprise was seeing another old classmate, John Frost, show up unexpectedly to join in the fun (Chuck had asked him for Bill's party as well but time constraints had prevented his appearance in Rapids). Another high point of the evening was watching Jon and Chuck good naturedly, "wrangle" over who would pick-up the check (another bit of fun was riding to Buckhead in John's new Bentley Arnage <http://www.darkforce.com/royce/arnage.htm>).

John left the next day to drive back to Sea Island [and his wife] will then be flying back to Italy for the Papal New years, his wife is Catholic) and Chuck and Sue planned stay on a bit longer to spend time with Chuck's daughter and her husband. [Chuck may have more to say about the evening(s).

I am sure fellow classmates Bob Kortcamp, Ron Reutz, and Ron Grundeen will also will feel affected by the Closing of Children's Choice (esp. Ron Freutz as his father was the principal when we were there).

Hello Kent:

Back safe and sound from a world-wind tour (7 countries in 3 weeks after 1 week in Paris). What an experience! (Walked 15+ miles in Rome alone!-smile) Took over 2000 pictures. (With digital chip that would hold 6000 didn't hold back - smile) Good thing I grew up in Wisconsin as it sure was cold and my daughter -Cal. born- had a hard time with it where I did not. Must say though, I am glad to be home to 70 degree weather!

Hope you have a good/safe/healthy and happy New Year.

Blessing to you and yours, Linda (Mitchell) Leitzke (65) gradLHS@Gmail.com

Editor's note:

Don't wash your car! The Editor looked at all the salt spray on the cars in the garage yesterday and also looked at the 7 day weather forecast. No major precip expected! Sooo, I took the cars to a carwash late Wednesday. This morning they changed the forecast! 5 to 6 inches of snow expected in the Rapids tomorrow thru Saturday! And all because I took the cars to a carwash!

Another Editor's note:

I was at the River Cities Bank this noon and who should be there? Dick Behm, former owner of the Brig when it was in the basement of the Dixon Hotel. I introduced myself as a former patron of 35 years ago and mentioned that I had married a gal that I met there. Dick said that quite a few marriages resulted from frequenting the Brig. He looked in very good health.

Editor's Restaurant Review

Well, I was down by the river on Monday and noticed a new restaurant had opened. It's the Jamaican Kitchen on the corner of E. Jackson and 2nd inside what used to be, if I remember right, the old Labor Temple. It opened only 3 or 4 weeks ago.

Well, I just had to try it! And what a great experience it was. I ordered a jerk chicken sandwich. The owner came with a bowl of soup! I told him that I only ordered a sandwich but he said it was a special today and came with soup and a salad. So, I had a very large bowl of fish soup! It wasn't bad at all! Kind of like a chowder since it had the same ingredients - fish, potatoes, carrots, and onion - but not thick like a chowder would be. The sandwich came next along with a lettuce salad on the same plate. A very generous amount of chicken breast - very tender and flavorful! The salad was just lettuce with a choice of ranch or Italian dressing in a squeeze bottle. Cost - $4.25. A real bargain!

The owners are authentic Jamaicans and I had a great time talking to them. They started out in the restaurant business in the Northway Mall in Marshfield. But that was just a temporary thing. If you attended the Riverfest or Cultural Festival here in the Rapids last summer, you may have noticed them selling Jamaican food at both of those events.

Here's a pic of the owners - Joy and Jimmy.

And here's their current menu.

If you want some real Jamaican cuisine, stop in and say hi! It's worth the visit!

A man is dining in a fancy restaurant and there is a gorgeous redhead sitting at the next table. He has been checking her out since he sat down, but lacks the nerve to start a conversation.

Suddenly she sneezes, and her glass eye comes flying out of its socket towards the man.

He reflexively reaches out, grabs it out of the air, and hands it back.

"Oh my, I am so sorry," the woman says as she pops her eye back in place.

"Let me buy your dinner to make it up to you," she says.

They enjoy a wonderful dinner together, and afterwards they go to the theater followed by drinks. They talk, they laugh, she shares her deepest dreams and he shares his. She listens.

After paying for everything, she asks him if he would like to come to her place for a nightcap and stay for breakfast.

They have a wonderful, wonderful time.

The next morning, she cooks a gourmet meal with all the trimmings.

The guy is amazed!! Everything has been SO incredible!!!!

"You know," he said, "you are the perfect woman. Are you this nice to every guy you meet?"

"No," she replies....."

"You just happened to catch my eye."

(Oh shut up, I just forward them, I don't write them.)
