Memories of then! News of now!

Editor's note: Well, we're having a sleet storm here in the Rapids at 3:00 PM this afternoon. That's on top of 15 inches of snow we got last week-end. And it will be underneath the 4 to 8 inches we're supposed to get tonight and tomorrow. Our front yard looks the beginning of a glacier! Global warming? Here's a pic of our back yard a couple of days ago. Snow was so fine it went right thru the screens on the gazebo and piled up on the table inside.

Judy started out for the Methodist church an hour ago and turned around after a half-mile. She returned to the garage with the car coated in ice!

Wis Rapids Street Dept has been really overworked for the last week, trying to remove all the snow. They had 8th Street all tied up yesterday trying to load snow from the sides of the street into trucks to haul to somewhere - making room for tonight's snowfall.

The WalMart store has a humonguous pile of snow in their parking lot. Bet it will still be around in April!

A new Arby's fast food outlet opened up this week on 8th Street and the Wendy's on the west side closed.

Here's something scary:

Justice Department officials have determined that the President of the United States has the legal authority to have someone killed. If you're the president, you can actually legally order the killing of someone in the United States. Today, Bill Clinton withdrew his support for Hillary. (Jay Leno)
