Subject: Ghost story

This was back in 1972..

A couple weeks after we were married, we were invited for a day or two to our friends house...down in Reedsburg, Wisconsin.

The husband used to be an flight instructor at the Rapids airport...They moved to Reedsburg and lived in a beautiful old Victorian house...

We were told that it used to be a funeral home years ago...

There was a balcony on the second floor facing the front of the house...Our friends told us, that the locals there, had told them, that it used to be a funeral home...and also that a young beautiful girl committed suicide jumping off that balcony..(right next to our bedroom).

They said someone would call a taxi to come to that house , and they would see a image of a young girl in a long dress standing on the balcony...and then would disappear...Guess it happened quite often...

(Taxi, young girl in long dress and her disappearing) And no one else called a taxi from that house.

It was a huge house. and when we were in the large parlor downstairs, these friends told us that behind this huge bookcase was a stairway going upstairs....It was a built in bookcase from the parlor to the upstairs....When we were upstairs, you could see the steps going down to no where....

I had no desire to see the basement in that place..

Needless to say...I layed awake all night long...couldn't wait until morning. We probably could of fit 6 people in that bed that night, we slept so close....Don sleeps thru everything....NOT ME!!
