Lincoln High Newsletter

Maggi Glenn-Colburn – maggiglenn-colburn@att.net

Krista Jensen '64 asked to be added to these great newsletters. Her email is: web_juggler@yahoo.com.

Krista and I just reconnected after 35+ years—we were best friends in high school, along with Mary Shaffenberger. I'm hoping to convince her to come to our class reunion in a couple of weeks. Kathy Gotter and the rest of the reunion committee have done an amazing job organizing the reunion in just a few short months – I am so looking forward to it!

I plan to go to Herschleb's at least once when I'm in the Rapids – that was also my favorite place for malts. As kids, our parents always took us there after our piano recitals (Mrs. Midthun was our piano teacher). I'd forgotten about Friendly Fountain – I remember vanilla phosphates, also those cokes with salt (ugh!); Wilbern's as a special dinner date place; Robby's for the best hamburger and fries – I think it was the first fast food place, preceding McDonald's? Favorite parking place – Lake Wazeecha (sp?) of course. Can you believe I've forgotten what bushwacking meant – was it catching someone parking? Haven't heard that term since high school.

Not sure we were famous and not even sure if the reference was to us but Micky Walters, Dick Reeves and I missed a turn and ran into a swamp on the way home from Riverside one night. The car sunk up to the bottom of the doors making it quite difficult to open them. Stepped out into mud up to our knees. One of our finest moments. It was the heavy fog that caused us to miss the turn.
Really it was.

Just a note to second Kathy Gotter's comment to the "local kids". There are so many that don't come-- I suppose because they see each other a lot. But there are many of us who come from out of town or out of state who would like to see them. That includes some of you band members!

This week's topics:

Last of Steve Harding's Topics

1. Best location for watching the cruises on Sundays
2. Best beer bar in Point
3. Best beer bar in Rapids

and responses:

Nick Brazeau, Sr. - njb@brazeaulaw.com

Best bars in Plover: Stagger Inn; Coney Island; and KoKo Club. No need to elaborate.

Gene Hafermann - genehafermann@charter.net

I assume "cruises" refers to cars and I was never into cars.

The only beer I like is root beer and then only those made with real sugar or honey. Favorites are 1919 (only can get on tap), Culvers Gourmet, and Sprechers (made with honey). Most of the other common ones (Mug, AW, Barqs, IBC, Dads, etc) are made with corn syrup that I try to stay away from. Other Gourmet root beers from breweries can be good, too, as long as they are made without corn syrup.

While I didn't go to many bars in Rapids or Point, I always liked the drunken chicken pizza at Paul's bar in Point.

Most of my retirement days right now are spent fixing/maintaining, attending events (theater, concerts, church, graduations, weddings, funerals, farmer's markets, etc), golfing, following sports, hiking, doing computer research and interacting with family. Today will involve string trimming grass on a lot we own in Madison, doing some maintenance items at a bonus daughter's home, and cleaning/organizing my garage workshop. Also trying to help a sister select a new computer system.

Beer Bar in Rapids has to be Riverside....loved the dancing to the best music and the Zakons were the best. Babe was a close family friend so I had a great connection...and of course my boyfriend loved dancing too.

Now Point was another story. I met my husband at Rudy's the first time I went to a bar in Point with my roommate. Her friend from Mauston was having a birthday party and at the last minute I decided to go with her. Changed my life forever!!! This was the first step to Oklahoma...if I only would have know!?!?! Ha, Ha.

Today I am doing the same thing I have done since August....working on the class of 64 - 50th reunion. Lots of last minute interest. Getting down to the final chance to attend. Final count to the Mead by the 17th since I am leaving for Milwaukee to visit with our son and family before the trip to Rapids. Email me at: gotterkd@yahoo.com.

Keep Smiling!!!!
Kathy

A new word for us Seniors.....!

I love this new word -- I even like pronouncing it!

New Word: Exhaustipated

Here is a new word to add to your vocabulary.
It will be especially useful to us senior folks!

Exhaustipated: meaning "too tired to give a shit."
