Hi Kent , Judy & classmates,

We are back from our WI vacation. Had a nice drive back to FL - and I take back what I said about Alabama. It is a beautiful state and we have decided if we drive again, that we would prefer the route thru AL vs. Atlanta. Lots of hills and bluffs. I guess I must have slept thru it on the way to WI.

I am always amazed at the changes in Rapids. First of all, it is so quiet. Very little traffic. And I can easily get lost with all the new roads. We got to do some golfing - at the Ridges, Bulls-Eye and over in Plover at Tree Acres (I think that was the name of it....) We also went to Autumn Ridge which is up by Valders, WI. That is in the Manitowac area. Interesting, challenging and very scenic course - would recommend it to anyone when in that area. My daughter took a picture of Tom and I by the Wisconsin River which I am sending in the mail to you. It was very pretty with the trees reflecting on the water.

We also got to see a Packer Game while there. We went to the Packer vs. Detroit game and fortunately they won. The new stadium is absolutely beautiful - much more than I had anticipated. But yet, sitting inside watching a game, you feel like it is still the "old Lambeau". They did a great job preserving that hallowed ground! Was hoping to do a little tailgating with Jere and Sherri Dhein but we never connected. It was raining (lightly) most of the day but we still loved being there.

I need some help from my classmates. My sister here in Florida is dating a man that my other sister and I believe to be a fraud (con-artist). We have caught him in lie after lie and he denies everything to my sister. He says we are the ones causing trouble in their relationship and to avoid boring all with the details, it boils down to the fact we need help investigating this guy. Does anyone know a good website for doing people searches? What information do I need to find out as much as I can about him? Now he claims to be a CIA agent and lives on McDill Air Force base in Tampa. Anyone have connections with CIA or McDill? We have called McDill and checked with several different divisions there and none of them have a record of his name. If he were CIA and did live there, and we called, would we find him or would they tell us he wasn't there - so called security reasons because of who he is (or claims to be)? Are they required to carry I.D. on them designating a CIA agent? We really believe this is a sick man and a pathological liar. We are worried for our sister - for some reason, she prefers to believe him over us. She even lied to me last weekend about where she was going - I found out later that she was with him.....so now, he has gotten her to lie to us also. We don't want to be meddling sisters but we are scared that she will leave with him sometime and we won't see her again. And we don't know who he really is to contact police. The wierd part is, he claims to have lived in FL for several years, but his car has TN license plates and he has a TN drivers license and we have found out he works for Orkin Pest Control in Tampa - all of which he claims are "cover-ups" for his CIA position. I am hoping with all of the knowledge out there in our class, that someone can help us out with information or suggestions on how to find out who he really is. My sister is a school teacher and I would think intelligent enough to see thru him as we have - but he seems to have some control over her that we can't explain. It is creepy! You can e-mail me at JBbeachshells@aol.com or - I am in the process of maybe changing over to Earthlink so have an address there also - jbshells@earthlink.net. Please help, if you can. I think it is a dangerous situation.

Judy also sent the editor a note and a couple of pics by USPS.

Here's what she wrote:

"This is Indies West where we are here in Naples, FL. As you can see we have water on 3 sides of us. It really is a beautiful area.

Am seding a pic my daughter took of Tom and I while on vacation in the Rapids. The time went way too fast - wish we could have gotten together with Judy and you.

Nancy (Porter) Huisman (64) writes from Alabama:

Just a short note. Anyone interested in buying a house in the South??? Alabama, that is! We are trying to sell it before Ken retires and probably will move closer to the kids. Still up in the air on that one. House is too big. I will give you a realtor web site and the property number.

WWW.spurlin-realestate.com property number is 20030521001

They have taken pictures of the inside so you can see what kind of junk I have kept over the years. The reflection in the bathroom mirror is Mr. Cotton. I Didn't know he was there until we got the pictures back...oh well and no he does not come with the house. Web site for the area is www.50states.com Alabama and then cities Guntersville or Albertville they run into each other. We are in Albertville . A bit quiet for a city girl, but very very pretty the base of the Appalachian Mts. Very Rural, one of those towns that folds up at 9 pm. You get a hug roun' your neck at the end of visits at the beauty parlor and are also told to go home now and make that man of yours twinkle his eyes at you cuz you're all fancied up. The post man knows your name at the post office and Albertville candy and gifts has coffee and desserts on Thurs Fri and Sat nights and the best dancin' is at the local VFW.

Ms Daniels at the Food Basket makes a great breakfast and there is always waffle house...and Wal-mart is open 24-7.. Ladies wear dresses

... and you have to go to Guntersville to buy Bourbon, Albertville is DRY!!!!. 4A sports teams and the local newspaper on-line is www.sandmountainreporter.com. Enjoy the house, we do, and if you want to buy it we'll sell it !!!!! AND.. you better be either an Auburn or an Alabama fan or your flag WILL be dissed.. Dan across the street wanted to know if I would like him to burn that LSU flag with his leaves...and LSU beat them.. HA!
