Merry Christmas!

The Editor and Judy would like to wish all the newsletter readers a Blessed Christmas!

Please remember that Christ's birthday is the "reason for the season"!

For unto you is born this day a Savior!

Young Soldier's Returning Home

Orders from headquarters indicate that this go around, unlike the previous three, Dominik will truly be returning home from the middle east. Twenty three years ago, I waited for him nine months. Can't quite say which wait's been longer. That one or this. Both were long and short simultaneously. Difference is, now all the potential I imagined for him then has proven itself out in reality and then some. He's supposed to be leaving there on January 3rd. 'M I happy? You bet! Not as happy as I'll be when I wrap my arms around him at the Colorado Springs airport. Nor as happy as I'd be if this war truly bestowed the 'peace and love' I wish for in Polish in this card. But still incredibly happy.

The best to each of you and those near and dear to you, wherever they are. Always, they're as close as our heartstrings allow them to be.

Editor's note: Wondered if any of the Wood County readers had recommendations or "non-recommendations" for nursing homes, assisted living places in the Rapids area that they'd like to share? Many from the Class of 64 and 65 have parents that will be in need of that sort of facility sometime in the future and it might not hurt to start thinking about it now!
