Kent,

Wondering if Judy got a yellow postcard about the Lincoln High School Alumni Directory? Do you think it is legit?.....never sure about those things! Let me know your thoughts.

Editor asked Tom Marshall Tom.Marshall@wrps.org at Lincoln High. Tom replied:

Kent - You bet!!!!!!! We are trying to put together an alumnae directory for the past 100 years. 1903 - 2003. If you could put something about this in your news letter, I would truly appreciate it. Questions can be directed to me. We have sent thousands of post cards through an agency in Florida. It's all on the up and up.

I read all the newsletters and enjoy them. But with everything that I am involved with it is hard to take a break. Recently I was recognized as a Level III Homeland Security Certification, the highest it goes, for all the work I do in training, investigations and assessments and with my involvement with InfraGard. That is a tale for another day.

Since 9/11 it has been a challenge!

Hope to get out to Kent's place in Cambridge this spring and take the trees down, that I said I would last Fall, to our summer home near Lyndon Station at River Bay. <http://www.dells-camping.com/riverbay/index.htm> You all are welcome to come on over, down or up. We are generally there every weekend from May through September plus a few weeks in between. You can find us easy enough. Go to the bar at the end of the road and walk back 68 steps. We are the first site next to the bar. I am off to Indiana, northern Wisconsin and Colorado this coming week on business. I'll read what you all write next weekend.

When is the class reunion scheduled? I think I recall reading months ago about being in July but would take some time for me to go back and read all the emails to find it.

Editor: Class of 65 reunion is scheduled for weekend of August 13th, 2005!

Not sure I am going to make it as June is my sons high school graduation. Daughter is attending Columbia U. Master's program in Paris. Plans are to bring her home as a surprise for his graduation and then to take sons to see her in July for at least 2 weeks. (They can't go back with her as she will be preparing for/having her finals immediately after her return and then taking a trip to Southern France as part of her Grad program. Will be bringing her home by early Sept. when her program is done. Lots of expenses between May-Sept. We'll see what the Lord provides. I really wanted to make this class reunion as I have never been to one and now that so many are corresponding it will be a special time. Sadly, another ten year wait could mean some would not be with us anymore that would be at this reunion.

With 2 hr. notice we got custody of our 6 year old grandson 2 weeks ago. Wow what a shock/change in our life. (I work about 60 hrs a week/7 day- since Nov. because of one of my clients present needs. I work with 6 senior citizens right now doing companionship/transportation/ etc.) I am only home about 1 hour at supper time M-F and only home 2 p.m-7p.m. Sats. and 7-9 p.m. Sundays so Grandpa is handling the load. I get a couple hours off some days to help out but.... Cade only has 1/2 days on Wed. so I pick him up and take him with me 2-5 as I take a client to pool therapy. Cade is able to go in the pool so he has really liked that. Blessing is he is affectionate, well-behaved, obedient and seems to be adjusting well. (He is in his 4th school since Sept- we put him in our church school with our 15 yr old son- so we have to start him next week with tutoring 4x a week to help him catch up. Teacher said he is very bright but not familiar with this curriculum - doesn't know phonics, etc.- so needs it to do catch up as quickly as possible. He needed to know a memory verse for the month. On the way to my sons basketball game I started repeating it to him. By the time we got to the game, about 20 minute ride, he knew it (Eps. 4:13). After the game I tested him and he still remembered it. We are sure he will catch up quickly. Hope so as each session is $25./hr. smile Our son is out of work. Our ex-daughter-in-law couldn't find day work; in beach community where she lived jobs of any pay are at night. (Son doesn't live in same town; she lost her apt. and was going to put Cade in foster care if we couldn't take him soooooooo.) A real blessing as we live about an hour from them so rarely got to see him in the last 6 yrs. (His mother cheated us out of $2000 2 years ago so hadn't heard from her since then until 2 weeks ago.) Putting Cade in a Christian home is God's plan no doubt. Pray Pray Pray for us - wisdom/energy/etc. smile.

Are you guys sending us our cold weather??? Been as low as 20's a couple times this last month and in 40's most nights this month. Cold for us in winter!!! I know, who are we to complain. smile

Till next time, Linda Mitchell/Leitzke

Pat Barton invited Judy and I to stop by and see her at her office at Domtar.

We dropped in on Monday. Domtar (Nepco) is doing well. They make specialty papers and haven't experienced the loss of sales that the coated paper industry has. Pat was Class of 64 but moved to Stevens Point her Junior Year.

She's been organizing the 40th for the Class of 64 this summer and would really appreciate some help!
