Rights, Revolution & Rhythm

Declaration 1776:

The Big Bang of Modern Democracy

April 7 - April 30

The phrase “all men are created equal” in the Declaration of Independence was revolutionary, inspiring independence movements worldwide. This exhibition shows how the Declaration motivates Americans and others to pursue equality and self-determination.

We Stand on Their Shoulders: A History of Wisconsin Women and Voting

May 5 - June 28

The display 'We Stand on Their Shoulders' highlights Wisconsin women's political rights, important leaders, and milestones like the 19th Amendment, Wisconsin Equal Rights Act, Indian Citizenship Act, and Voting Rights Act, using quotes, photos, and a timeline.

Immigration: An American Story

July 2 - August 24

The United States is often called “a nation of immigrants,” but this oversimplifies history. Each wave of immigration has influenced public attitudes and policies. 'Immigration' uses documents, maps, and images to share stories of those who came to America, some forcibly, others seeking a better life.
